"I think I could benefit from having a coach, but I'm hesitant to hire one because I worry the coach won't understand why I need a coach with all the opportunities I have been given in my life."

"It seems like anything I do with my life will pale in comparison to all that my Dad has accomplished. And if I do have some success of my own, people will just say it was because my family name helped me get there."

"I'm in the dark about the roles I'll be expected to take on in the future with my family, so it's hard to know if I'm prepared. I want to do a good job of carrying on my family legacy, but I'm not sure what I should be doing to get ready."
